Landon Metz

My Friend Later Told Me That Apples Don't Have Cores

March 15 – April 13, 2014

Opening Reception: Saturday, March 15, 7 – 9 PM

"On my walk to the studio I bought an apple for a dollar or something. There weren't any trashcans around when I finished it, so I threw the core into the bush on the East River. My friend later told me that apples don't have cores." - Landon Metz

Retrospective is pleased to present an exhibition of new paintings by Landon Metz in a row house located at 438 Carroll Street. This exhibition is the first in a series that Retrospective is planning for spaces throughout Hudson in addition to its storefront at 727 Warren St. The exhibition will run concurrently with a show of new works by Jason Middlebrook and Letha Wilson at the Warren St. location.

438 Carroll Street will be open Saturday 12-5pm and by appointment.
