PRESS RELEASE

Oriole is pleased to announce Excitement and Enticement – An Exhibition of Paintings, opening Friday 19th April. Organized in conversation with the New York-based artist Jeanette Mundt, the exhibition assembles the work of twenty-two acclaimed American painters whose dynamic practices question how we define representation today. Surveying some of the most significant voices in contemporary painting, Excitement and Enticement will provide a unique opportunity to experience the works of these significant figures firsthand, some of whom have never been exhibited in Germany.
