Reproduction Agreement

The enclosed high res images are on loan to you and are accepted by you under the following terms and conditions:

- That the reproductions are accompanied by the name of the artist, the title and date of work, the owner credit line and copyright;
 - That the reproductions are not cropped, overprinted, overlaid with text, tinted or subject to any form of derogatory treatment, without the prior approval of the copyright owner;
 - That the image is only reproduced to illustrate David Ostrowski's exhibition Parliament at Sprüth Magers, New York;
 - That any reproductions that accompany an article are not used for marketing or advertising purposes without permission, including but not limited to posters, postcards and brochures;
 - That the reproductions must not be stored for future use;
 - The use of a single image to illustrate a double page spread is not permitted without prior authorisation.
- All press inquiries regarding additional reproduction of images must be directed to the attention of Sprüth Magers.

If the reproduced image is by an artist who is a member of an Artists Rights Society, please also get in touch with the respective society of your country to pay any fees that might occur for the usage of the image, e.g. VG Bild-Kunst in Bonn, Germany, Artists Rights Society in New York or VEGAP in Madrid, Spain.

Sprüth Magers requires as part of the reproduction agreement that the publisher forwards three copies of published materials for archival use.

You may use the images on your website and social media channels, subject to the above terms. If you wish to promote the images on your social media, link and use the hashtag @spruethmagers #spruethmagers.
