Milwaukee, WI -- The Green Gallery is pleased to announce No. 1 Rainbow, a solo exhibition of new work by Jessica Jackson Hutchins and in the back gallery a solo exhibition by Wayne Ngan.

Jessica Jackson Hutchins (born 1971, Chicago, IL) is an American artist based in Portland, Oregon. She holds an MFA from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago and BA from Oberlin College. She has been included in numerous exhibitions nationally and internationally. Most recently, her work has been included in solo projects at the Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum, Michigan and the Hepworth Wakefield Museum, West Yorkshire, UK and in group exhibitions such as the 2013 Venice Biennale and the 2010 Whitney Biennial.

Wayne Ngan has distinguished himself as one of the most virtuosic potters of our time. Winning awards straight out of art school, his reputation as a potter has grown to a world wide acknowledgement of his contribution to the art. Now 76, his recent production is increasingly sculptural, fantastical forms which begin with traditional shapes only to exaggerate their proportions into something entirely contemporary. Ngan stays true to the material, emphasizing the clays personality often leaving it partially exposed behind strips of slip and pigment. Inspired by nature his work functions on a different time continuum, a return to an essentialist connection to material.

Exhibition: March 19 - April 20, 2014
