

TOBIAS HAUSWIRTH⁹⁶ TH.

Thinking through looking,
because of looking.

Engaged looking. Saying without naming. Looking as a transform into, from a thing, silent, unmoving into an experience without words.

I understand, we understand and this thing of looking in and of itself. The looking itself is its language. We are the language makers.

Language as making. It's not there and then it's there.
Different each time, different because of looking, because of thinking, because of listening.
