Tertium datur, or the third something:
It adds nothing.

as politics: escape - exit, a defection. lets get out of here!

no no this, no no that. neither action nor reaction, Tertium datur is a kind of passage or a threshold.

a peripheral scene which liberates order itself.

the experience of exteriority as non-thingness; the deferral to a scene whereby the form of thought is articulated in advance.

ain't no cynic! Tertium datur is less than passive.
is it method? nope

Disobedient. not-a-voice. give it away! the experience of being within the other inside yourself.

"i dont know what it is, but i love what it did"
it adds nothing.
