Wurstpate, Berlin, Germany

Curated by Dingum and part of “Off-Menu”, a series of collaborations between international artists and restaurants in and around Berlin.

BuyBrätschWurst Compressed took place at Der Wurstpate in Berlin in the summer of 2013. It was an outdoor performance at a popular hotdog stand, which included a special menu, merchandise designed by Brätsch, as well as a special artist’s edition called BrätschKompressoren feat. Oxygenenergizer (TM) by Sonja Gerdes. Additionally, an elderflower dessert was offered, which was mixed onsite with the help of a car battery.
