

Dear friends!

Laurenz is happy to present the work of Jack Burton, Katřina Āemme, Bardhi Haliti, Lisa Jager, Richard Klippfeld, Zuzana Kostelanska, Sophia Mairer, Julian Siffert, Marina Sula, Robin Waart and Lawrence Weiner at the 3rd edition of Systema at Palais Carli, Marseille.

Somehow it has become a tradition that every year Laurenz temporarily leaves its home in Vienna to visit friends, other independent spaces and initiatives abroad. This year, at the invitation of the team of Systema, Laurenz travels to Marseille, hosted in the beautiful spaces of Palais Carli. For the 3rd edition of Systema, Laurenz transforms its architecture into a travelling suitcase, taking on the role of a mobile exhibition space and display, with the exhibition taking place on its outer shell. For the duration of Systema, the suitcase will move around the Palais Carli, finding a new location every day.

Keep your eyes open for unattended luggage!
