

25 Americans: American Painting in the 90s

Milwaukee Art Museum, Milwaukee, WI

Opening September 7, 1995

September 8 – November 5, 1995

Curator: Dean Sobel, MAM Curator of Contemporary Art

A survey of approximately 75 paintings by 25 American artists of several generations who define painting today. They attest to the vitality of painting being made in the '90s. Various approaches will be reflected including recent realist, abstract, formal, conceptual and politically inspired works.

Ida Applebroog, Luis Cruz Azaceta, Richmond Burton, Peter Cain, Chuck Close, John Currin, Eric Fischl, Louise Fishman, Gaylen Gerber, Leon Golub, Michelle Grabner, Mary Heilmann, Byron Kim, Judy Ledgerwood, Glenn Ligon, Glenn Ligon in collaboration with Byron Kim, Robert Mangold, Elizabeth Murray, Dona Nelson, Lari Pittman, Susan Rothenberg, Pat Steir, Philip Taaffe, Sue Williams, Terry Winters, Christopher Wool