

Gina Folly your heart is a museum Opening: September 19th, 2024 Until November 9th 2024

How is make-believe real?
When we are pretending, is it our real bodies and minds that go through the actions?
Or do those things become pretend too?
If I am pretending and that makes a feeling, is the feeling make-believe too?
If I get a reward for pretending, is the reward real?
Or does it become part of the act?
How do I know you're watching me?
And what if I get frustrated?
When you look away will you pretend I'm not here?
And when it's me you're looking at, what is it that you've turned away from?

- Jason Hirata -

Cats (Cat I sleeping at the ticket counter of the Basilica of Saint John), 2024 C-Print, framed 75 x 100 cm Cats (Cat II sleeping on a column on Harbor Road of Ephesus), 2024 C-Print, framed 100 x 75 cm Cats (Cat III looking at a column of the Temple of Artemis), 2024 C-Print, framed 45 x 60 cm Cats (Cat III chilling on a stone at the Temple of Artemis), 2024 C-Print, framed 45 x 60 cm Cats (Cat III dancing on a stone at the Temple of Artemis), 2024 C-Print, framed 75 x 100 cm Cats (Cat IV looking at us at the Heracles Gate of Ephesus), 2024 C-Print, framed 45 x 60 cm 7. Cats (Cat V drinking at the Celsus Library of Ephesus), 2024 C-Print, framed 45 x 60 cm Cats (Cat VI walking through the gates of the Basilica of Saint John), 2024 C-Print, framed 75 x 100 cm Cats (Cat VII walking from Harbor Road to the Celsus Library of Ephesus), 2024 C-Print, framed 5 elements, each 45 x 60 cm 10. Your heart is a museum, 2024 21 Reflective Sensory Balls for big cats, Stainless Steel various sizes

