

Photography

Carter Seddon, Edward Dean, Gianna Surangkanjanajai, Marysia Paruzel,
Bernadette Van Huy, Micah Danges, and Keanan Fox

Opening August 31st 6pm to 8pm

The subject is not photography. The subject is the same old one, the world. Music, models, trees, signs. The artists in the show are aiming at different things and they have different procedures, from each other and from you. Maybe the subject of the exhibition is the contract between the artists and viewers, to look at something—even if you're looking at almost nothing—through someone else's camera.

*This is one location of a joint exhibition between Graham Vunderink Gallery and Chatham Soccer
