As the last show at the Eternithaus before moving to new grounds, d i n g u m is proud to announce a performance-only weekend. As with prior d i n g u m shows, 'The Previous Performance Show' will explore the ephemeral and time-based character of the weekend, giving each of the invited artist a fixed time slot. All used materials will remain in the space as traces, obstacles, sets or sculptures of previous performances.

Calla Henkel & Max Pitegoff install audience benches, Vittorio Brodmann performs an act of stand-up comedy, Judith Hopf will show "Construction of Youth", Marco Bruzzone and Ligia Manuela Lewis perform a choreography for agave plants, slammers and humans in an anti-gravity journey, Nik Kosmas serves a dish from the menu of his new restaurant, Peter Kortmann carrying out the physical act of renewing the tone, Yuki Higashino holds an architect's PowerPoint presentation as a black metal concert, Trisha Baga opens her web-archive and Trevor Lee Larson plays a sound transcription of his dreams. Rupert Smyth creates a print work to accompany the show.
