Skyscraper,

An image of growth
 itself the conquest
of order and structure

a physical black box into which we can nearly glimpse through

the reflections off
 of the glimmering
glass curtain walls

hundreds of meters high the shadows of
its inner workings

from the skyscraper we see the average man below
thermostat citizen

of market democracies
 mathematical monad
consensus fodder

atoms of distress fruit
 to the farmer
harvested bought and sold

Lodos is pleased to present Skyscraper, Ryan Nault's first solo exhibition with the gallery.
