

Samuel Haitz

Projection

06.12.2024-11.01.2025 • GROTT0, Berlin

Projection revolves potential titular meanings. A Kodak Carousel tray as a vitrine titled Archive (Anthology (Diary), 2024), 2024, showcases 80 slides—a reproduction of the slide show Anthology (Diary), 2024, which was stolen during its first showing. Index (Anthology (Diary), 2024), 2024 is an overview of Tim Dlugos' New York Diary, digitally marked in blue and overlapped with screenshots of diaristic entries on X before transferred onto dia-positives. A photograph captures Max reading Dlugos' poem You Are There.

Samuel Haitz (*1997) is currently based in Zurich. He had solo and duo exhibitions at Triangolo, Cremona, IT (2024); Espace Topic, Geneva, CH (2024, with Valentin Rilliet); Lokal-Int, Biel, CH (2024); HIT, Geneva, CH (2023, with Covey Gong); The Estate, Mesocco, CH (2023); All Stars, Lausanne, CH (2022, with Julie Beaufils); Sangt Hipolyt, Berlin, DE (2022); Cabaret Voltaire, Zurich, CH (2021); Plymouth Rock, Zurich, CH (2019). Recent group exhibitions include Triangolo, Cremona, IT (2024); Etablissement d'en face, Brussels, BE (2024); Good or Trash, Paris, FR (2023); Galerie Lange Pult, Auvernier, CH (2023); Helmhaus, Zürich, CH (2022); Kunsthalle Basel, Basel, CH (2021); MASI, Lugano, CH (2021); Nevven, Gothenburg, SE (2021).

Archive (Anthology (Diary), 2024), 2024

Dia slides, Kodak Carousel tray, plinth

118 × 84 × 50 cm

Unique

Index (Anthology (Diary), 2024), 2024

C-Prints and adhesive on inkjet-print mounted on alu-dibond, framed

84 × 59.4 cm

Unique

You Are There (Max reading), 2024

C-Print mounted on museum board, framed

29.7 × 42 cm

Ed. 3 + 2 AP

Edition:

Limerence, 2024

From: Having a Coke with You (2019-ongoing)

Cherry coke cans

15 × 11,5 × 5,2 cm

Ed. 5 + 2 AP

Samuel Haitz would like to thank the GROTTTO team, Julian Blum, Stefan Burger, Max Fingerhuth, and Milena Langer.

This exhibition is made possible with the kind support of Johann von Wallenberg.