Gift of the Magi

P.E.O.P.L.E.

On a plate so big that I could feed it with a pillow. I'll be cutting this with a sharp knife.

Rum Raisin Chocolate Madeleine. Orangettes of a butterfly. Orangette Galette Breton. Empty and fragrant. Rochecoco loads of hazelnut pralines. Deep type of rich. Novazette Financier. What's in the picture. Realized this only after I got stuck in the snow.

How long since I've read that book, will I be able to finish it. It seemed like three people including the master were going around the shop, but they were all a little angry. Over the counter says, "May I take a picture?" and more. When the shop is supposed to be busy, "Let's get over and take a picture" and so on. I once had dreamt about light refracting cookies. Your video shows that dream I had when I was a baby that I somehow remember is true.

What are winter and fall strawberries?

I had my doubts. First of all, the combination of fluffy shortcake and sweet and sour starchy strawberries like a drink goes beyond my throat while being covered in a large amount of fresh cream and strawberry sauce.

Had a rare pancake instead. Recently I've been wanting something someone made. The moment I saw the beautiful round with butter and cream on top, my heart was filled with joy.

The butter on the pancakes ran as we talked.
