ISSUES	ISSUES presents the second solo show at the gallery with
ISSUES	abstract painter Ida Persson. Two years ago, in Ida's
ISSUES	first show with ISSUES, we saw the Caretaker triptych where
ISSUES	each of the large paintings portrayed a Conductor. Amongst
ISSUES	Ida Persson's categories of subjects, the Conductor is an
ISSUES	abstract architectural being with arms that may conduct,
ISSUES	control but also embrace and protect. In her new exhibition
ISSUES	at the gallery, Safeguard, four large paintings each show
ISSUES	suspended diamond-shaped structures with protruding spikes,
ISSUES	titled Anchor I-IV. The aggressive form of an anchor has
ISSUES	the function of harbouring in a storm, which brings to mind
ISSUES	the dynamics of safety and aggression in human interaction.
ISSUES	We are delighted to be showing Ida Persson's further
ISSUES	illumination of psychology and politics in abstract and
ISSUES	architectural forms.
ISSUES	aronicocoarar formo.
ISSUES	The exhibition is accompanied by a text written, in Swedish,
ISSUES	by architect Victoria Percovich Gutierrez, founder of CSAM
