April 19 – May 24, 2025

This show is the third in an iteration of exhibitions including our 2022 exhibition Sweet Days of Discipline (Fleur Jaeggy) and our 2024 exhibition Lavinia (Ursula K. La Guin).

If you are not already familiar, Taking Care (Joy Williams) contains a collection of stories in which many of the protagonists cannot quite fit what they immediately perceive into a coherent schema of the phenomenological world. Often the fantastical emerges amidst concrete details of place, and Williams, as technician, delivers each story with a formal precision that builds an embroidered lintel of language within her atmospheres of psychic ambiguity.
