G.V. Rodriguez (b. 1985, San Diego, CA)

lives and works in Los Angeles, CA

G.V. Rodriguez, b. 1985, is a self-taught artist living and working in Southern California. Rodriguez's painted compositions are a fusion of multiple fabrics and canvases cut, embroidered, and sewn together. The commonplace subjects and restful mood in G.V. Rodriguez's works are conduits for profane illuminations—lucid dreams imprinted, sewn, and painted into dense canvas and linen assemblages. Being a self-taught artist utilizing an unusual combination of processes, Rodriguez has created for himself an idiosyncratic figurative lexicon. Prominent collections include The Rubell Museum of Art and The Bunker Artspace.
