

Met een bijdrage van | Avec une contribution de | With a contribution by Judith Geerts en in samenwerking met het kleuteratelier van Cc Strombeek onder leiding van | et une collaboration avec l'Atelier pour enfants du Cc Strombeek enseigné par | and a collaboration with Cc Strombeek's Kindergarten Atelier taught by Gerda Debuck and Han Decorte

Tekst door | Texte par | Text by Alison Yip

1

a chapel called on time.
 this sugar in your cup
 this punctum is grounding
 and safely, neoprened.
 springtime
 in their steps is how. the
 practice of
 showing up.
 finding surplus,
 moving surplus.
 around that city
 as you enter -
 expert arms
 framing.
 painting
 hanging
 prone to
 gazing.
 last year's
 but no less
 vivid. a picture
 in picture
 of
 doing
 and pride.
 beads of condensation,
 hurry and care.
 welcomes you to
 the chapel
 on time

11

ambivalence chapel
 when,
 steering cold and winded,
 we're over cast.
 who do you smile for?
 said the portrait
 that gives
 and takes.
 whatever potential
 pedals. lean in
 checking pockets,
 checking.
 how to dodge
 aboutness.
 buddy code observed:
 respect, but
 comparing
 when trained
 in comparison.
 like purchasing water
 like opposite knees
 like additional comments
 skip, continue.
 like wheels humming -
 yes, no, maybe
 yes, no, other

111

repetition is my
 is my chapel
 round is a place
 song is too.
 or a snack
 hidden by a
 paper plate.
 arm chest
 thumb forehead
 sleeves cheek
 elbow selves
 they all circle,
 surely.
 i can pilot
 a small plane
 tilted.
 tongue knows, lands too.
 circling is learning.
 circling is becoming
 and
 behind it,
 became.
 pat pat soft glue
 baked it in the sun.
 signed,
 ladybug
 or
 my very own intention

