

VERONICA

wynne greenwood

Hear it whisper in my ear

August 9th - September 13th, 2025

Street tar song (new thought)

Street tar

looks like a snake

This world

a different place

Fall apart if you need to Fall apart if you want to Try to get a good job

Propping up an old idea

New life over shoulder

Hear it whisper in my ear

Magic cracks the system

Magic in my body

I believe the feeling

I believe the feeling

Can I believe a new thought?

Hear it whisper in my ear presents the first single from wynne's forthcoming full-length album, with new video and soft sculpture.

wynne greenwood (b. 1977, Seattle, WA) is a video artist and songmaker who also creates objects and performance. Her practice grows from making dialogues with versions of self and the worlds those versions live in/are of. Recent exhibitions, screenings and releases include Recent Acquisitions at the Frye Art Museum, Solar Utopias at Northwest Film Forum, Distant Dream with Coley Mixan and Ruth Keating Lockwood, and Work-in-Progress at Fourteen30 Contemporary. A new album is forthcoming in 2025.

Support for the album was generously provided by ILY2, Stephanie Snyder, C+E, and all the supporters of the 2021 Kickstarter. Thank you!
