

Jan Domicz

Two works with vertical structure

We invite you to a three-day presentation of two works by Jan Domicz. Both pieces are constructed in an almost identical way – through a vertical shift. One is ten years old, while the other was created just a few months ago.

Lamps on a lamp shop, 2015

Sunrises (album), 2025

Jan Domicz (b. 1990 Opole, Poland) visual artist, author of videos and objects. In his works, he uses the narrative potential of both architectural and social space. Domicz is a graduate of the Staedelschule in Frankfurt and the University of Arts in Poznan. His works were shown at the Architecture Biennale in Venice and at Museum für Moderne Kunst in Frankfurt, Museum of Modern Art in Warsaw, Arsenal Gallery in Poznań, Neuer Essener Kunstverein and SALTS in Basel. He is represented by Gallery Wschód in Warsaw. In addition to artistic practice, he has been running the quasi-curatorial project Office for Narrated Spaces since 2017. He teaches at University SWPS and Academy of Photography. Domicz lives and works in Warsaw.