

Schluss mit Schmetterlinge Gregory Polony

Graphite drawings on paper. Done with left or right hand (sometimes both). Ongoing practice originating during a clinical stay in 2024. Aluminium railing.

Flattened muffin wrappers, non-reflective plexiglas, construction-machinery paint, stainless steel.

Landscape print used as wrapping for an item ordered online.

High intensity discharge metal halide lamp in housing made from shower polyester curtains, crochet strings made daily during a clinical stay, aluminium pole and spring mechanism, found steel stand, electronic ballast.

High intensity discharge metal halide lamp in housing made from shower polyester curtain, crochet strings made daily during a clinical stay, aluminium pole and spring mechanism, felt tip pen on home-made stand and cut trunk, electronic ballast.

All works 2025.

Gregory would like to thank Katrine Hoffmeyer Tougård, Anka Helfertová, Kathi Hofer, Sophie Nys, and Jonas Rogge for their continuous and various forms of support. Thankyou to my daughter Ecco Pooch for her felt tip pen drawing and agreement to include it in the exhibition. Special thanks Henry Andersen, Sabrina Seifried, and Charlie Usher for their dedication, trust, and energy. And lastly, thankyou to Lena Wolff, without whom these drawings wouldn't have come to be.
