

Alien Tourist is taking place during the night in the wilderness in the Northern part of Jutland. The scenes are revealed with moving light where the nature takes on the appearance of a sublime romantic landscape painting. Moving through fields, forests and sand dunes, the landscapes seems to blur together, to become one disoriented place where space and time is loosened and where suddenly human bodies appear in frozen positions, like sculptures.

Cinematography by: Adam Wallensten

Produced by: Julie Friis Walenciak

Music by: Robin Rimbaud – Scanner

Sound by: Daniel Jenatsch and Sune Kaarsberg

Edit by: Julius Krebs Damsbo

Maria von Hausswolff (b. 1985) lives and works in Copenhagen. von Hausswolff has studied at Staatliche Hochschule für Bildende Kunst, Städelschule, Fine Art, Frankfurt am Main and National Filmschool of Denmark in Copenhagen. This is von Hausswolff's debut exhibition in a gallery context.

(This document was automatically generated by Contemporary Art Library.)