

Why do I fill a box of flowers for you?

Graham Hamilton

18.09.2025 - 21.09.2025

1. small city, 2025 cotton fabric, sunflowers, assorted reeds, rushes and flowers

2. window, 2025 silkscreen on paper, learner's permit car magnets

Graham Hamilton lives and works in Paris, FR.

Hamilton is a graduate of New York University and the Städelschule in Frankfurt am Main. His multidisciplinary practice spans floral arrangement, silkscreen, photography and sculpture, focusing on the tension between organic decay and preservation. Recent solo exhibitions include "La busta, basta" at Gelateria del Sogni di Ghiaccio, Bologna (2025); "Memorabilia" at Turiner Kunstverein?, Turin (2025); and "November or Bouvard and Pécuchet" at Alienze, Paris (2024).