

Dorp

The sheep are my thoughts
Gina Folly & Albert Riera Galceran
8th December - 11th January

I'm herdsman of a flock.
The sheep are my thoughts
And my thoughts are all sensations.
I think with my eyes and my ears
And my hands and feet
And nostrils and mouth.

To think a flower is to see and smell it.
To eat a fruit is to sense its savor.

And that is why, when I feel sad,
In a day of heat, because of so much joy
And lay me down in the grass to rest
And close my sun-warmed eyes,
I feel my whole body relaxed in reality
And know the whole truth and am happy.

— 'The Herdsman' by Alberto Caeiro (Fernando Pessoa), translated by Edouard Roditi

Gina Folly (b.1983) lives and works in Basel and Paris. Recent exhibitions include Fanta-MLN, Milan (2024), CAC Synagogue de Delme, Delme (2024) and Centre d'édition contemporaine, Geneva (2023).

Albert Riera Galceran (b.1995) lives and works in Barcelona. Recent exhibitions include Hothouse, London (2024), Nave Seis, Barcelona (2022) and Galería Nueva, Madrid (2020).

---

3-5 Crown Close, Fish Island, London E3 2JH

The exhibition is on view by appointment only. To make an appointment, or for more information and images, please contact info@dorpprojects.com or @dorpprojects on Instagram.