CC 2052

---

November 8 – December 20, 2025

Reception: Saturday, November 8, 2025, 6-8pm

White Columns is excited to present our third project with Ceramics Club, CC 2052. This fundraising exhibition will open on Saturday, November 8 from 6 - 8pm, and be on view at White Columns from November 8 - December 20. During the show over 500 ceramics will be available for sale, alongside a new limited-edition T-shirt. All proceeds from sales will be donated by Ceramics Club to the non-profit organizations New York Cares, Make the Road, City Harvest, Project Eats, Food Bank for NYC, Brooklyn Rescue Mission Urban Harvest Center, Ali Forney Center, Covenant House, The Door, Greenwich House Pottery, and NYPL.

Like Ceramics Club's previous presentations at White Columns in 2015 and 2022, all artworks are presented and sold anonymously, and the exhibition will empty as the ceramics are purchased and removed.* The exhibition will be accompanied by a series of events at the gallery including a poetry reading, a queer speed cruising event, a video screening and more.

Ceramics Club is an informal association of artists who meet irregularly at the Greenwich Pottery House in the West Village. It was founded in 2007 by artists Trisha Baga and Pam Lins at The Cooper Union, as a group interested in using ceramics as a way to “socially interact, make material, collaborate, and see what happens from there.” Ceramics Club “models itself on propositions gleaned from amateur ‘clubs’ that in organizing, were interested in dismantling and opposing professionalism – withdrawing distinctions regarding quality, institutions, representations, etc.”

Since 2015 Ceramics Club has been partnering with non-profit arts organizations to present fundraising events and exhibitions, where ceramic artworks created by the members of Ceramics Club are sold to benefit charitable organizations. Ceramics Club combines the collective making of objects with fundraising, performance, craft, community, and comedy.

CC has had shows and fundraising events at White Columns, MoMA PS1, Greenwich House Pottery, A.I.R. Gallery, and more.
