Wavelengths

25th April – 31st May 2025

Opening: Thursday 24th April, 6:30pm – 8:30pm.

Tommaso Corvi-Mora is pleased to present “Wavelengths”, an exhibition of new work by Brian Calvin, his tenth at the gallery.

The exhibition features two groups of paintings: compositions of female heads, which continue the artist’s research in a language based on variations on a theme, and a group of self-portraits. The autobiographical element has been central to Brian Calvin’s practice since the early Nineties. Different subject matter and varying formal resolutions have over the years allowed him to create work in which art and life blend seamlessly.

Brian Calvin was born in Visalia (CA) in 1969 and lives in Ojai (CA). His work has been included in some of the seminal shows of the last twenty-five years, including “Dear Painter, Paint Me”, Centre Pompidou Paris (2002) and “Los Angeles – A Fiction”, Astrup Fearnley Museum, Oslo (2017). “End of Messages”, a survey of his work organised by Le Consortium in Dijon, travelled across Europe in 2015.

The gallery is open to Tuesday to Saturday, 11am to 6pm.
