

Close Quarters, organized by the New Art Dealers Alliance, is an off-site exhibition in partnership with Governors Island. The exhibition features eight NADA Member galleries across two floors of a historic turn-of-the-century Colonial Revival house on Governors Island.

Featuring:

Rainer Ganahl (Kai Matsumiya)

Fabienne Lasserre (Safe Gallery)

Michael Mahalchick (CANADA)

Jerry the Marble Faun (SITUATIONS)

Hayley Martell (Signal)

Asif Mian (False Flag)

Devin N. Morris (Signal)

Elliott Jamal Robbins (Kai Matsumiya)

Johanna Unzueta (Proyectos Ultravioleta)

Jeff Williams (Jack Hanley Gallery)

Previously occupied by the Coast Guard, House 403 has a storied history on Governors Island, serving as the site of many of President Ronald Reagan's meetings with world leaders, including Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev. The house is located within the Governors Island Historic District, designated by the New York City Landmarks and Preservation Commission.

Visit

Close Quarters

July 1–29, 2018

Governors Island

Colonels Row, 403

Opening Preview

Thursday, June 28, 1–5pm

Open to the Public

Each Friday, Saturday, & Sunday in July

11–5pm

Governors Island is open to the public and accessible by ferry. Ferry schedules can be found at govisland.com

(This document was automatically generated by Contemporary Art Library.)