Duplexes

3/12/26 - 4/26/26

Weatherproof is excited to present Duplexes, an exhibition of work by Nate Millstein.

Nate Millstein (b. 1996 Brooklyn, NY) received his bachelor of arts degree from Bard College in 2018. He is currently an MFA candidate at Mason Gross School of the Arts, Rutgers University. Select exhibitions include Smashpiece at Recess Gallery, Chicago IL, Uncertainty surrounds the holding of things at After/Time Collective Gallery, Portland OR, Irrigation at The Reinstitute Gallery, Millerton NY, Thank God we don't know what we look like at HERE Arts Center NYC, and Burning at Nightclub Gallery, Minneapolis MN.

Hey Nate,

Last weekend we hosted a small party and the guests were enamored with the ceiling's spectacle, small hors d'oeuvres spread on a table centered in the living room with the regular fixings; the textured screams of "we're back in New York City baby!"—something I loved in those old movies.

The purpose of this correspondence is to ask for something more angular, contemporary; it was our understanding that this was explicitly of note to you. I am requesting a partial refund contingent on further discussion, with a hope that we can resolve this swiftly.

All the best,
