For Immediate Release:

My People Were Fair and Had Cum in their Hair (but Now They're Content to Spray Stars from your Boughs)

Curated by Bob Nickas
18 October through 15 November 2003

Charles Atlas, Black Leotard Front, Leigh Bowery, Matthew Brannon, Alex Brown, Jeff Burton, Peter Cain, Larry Clark, Jeff Davis, Jules de Balincourt, Lucky de Bellevue, Brice Dellsperger, Roe Ethridge, Charles Henri Ford, Richard Hawkins, Christian Holstad, Peter Hujar, Steve Kille, Bruce LaBruce, Kevin Larmon, Tim Lokiec, Nick Mauss, Ryan McGinley, Michael Meads, Billy Miller, Mark Morrisroe, Chuck Nanney, Paul P., Walter Pfeiffer, Terry Richardson, Rene Santos, Jack Smith, Spencer Sweeney, Paul Thek, Wolfgang Tillmans, John Tremblay, Kelley Walker, John Waters, T.J. Wilcox

Team Gallery is pleased to announce that it will present a group exhibition entitled My People Were Fair and Had Cum in their Hair (but Now They're Content to Spray Stars from your Boughs). The exhibition will run from the 18th October through the 15th of November 2003. The gallery is located at 527 West 26th Street, between Tenth and Eleventh Avenues, on the ground floor.

The show's title references the name assigned by Marc Bolan to the first album by the British glam band T-Rex. (The Bolan title reads: "My people were fair and had sky in their hair, but now they're content to wear stars on their brows.") According to curator Bob Nickas, "This is one of those rare times when the show really is about the title… even if I can't exactly say why. I am happy to leave the interpretation up to the artists who participate and to the people who visit the show. That said, a lot of work by younger artists has brought back ideas revolving around hedonism, liberation and revolution — sexual energy as a key to the kingdom. So maybe this is my protest show for these long, dark days of the Bush conspiracy."

For further information and/or photographs please call the gallery at 212.279.9219. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Saturday, 10 am to 6pm.