

HALSEY MCKAY GALLERY

WHY... YES IT IS A MOVE SHOW: RICH JACOBS WITH SOME OF HIS FRIENDS

May 9 - June 14 | HMGP 60 Greenpoint Avenue, Brooklyn, NY
For all further information please email contact@halseymckay.com

Rich Jacobs with Hisham Baroocha, Thomas Campbell, Jeff Canham, Louie Cordero, Andy Cvar, Lori Damiano, Daniel Davidson, Garry Davis, Chris Duncan, James Gallagher, Julia Gorton, Grant Guthrie, Jordin Isip, Spencer Jacobs, Atiba Jefferson, Chris Johanson, Tim Kerr, Hiroshi Kimura, Hannah Lee, Alicia McCarthy, Geoff McFetridge, Barry McGee, Richard McGuire, Taylor McKimens, Neckface, Jason Porter, Ashrita Reddy, Chris Shary, Jaiko Suzuki, Miki Vuckovich, Serge Vutuc, Jocko Weyland, Eric White, Tobin Yelland

Halsey McKay Gallery is pleased to present Why... Yes It Is A Move Show: Rich Jacobs With Some Friends, in our Brooklyn location. This is an iteration of Rich's final exhibition, which includes the last body of work he created from his hospital bed, along with a group show featuring some of his artist friends. It was exhibited at SWIM Gallery in San Francisco this past December, sadly just weeks after he passed away following a battle with leukemia. This exhibition at Halsey McKay includes Rich's remaining works, along with many of the artists who participated in the friends portion of that show.

Rich had expressed to me his desire to have a show in New York next, after San Francisco. He really wanted everyone - his friends colleagues, supporters, admirers, and the general public in New York to have the opportunity to see this work; it was profoundly important to him. We hope you are able to see it. - Jordin Isip, May 2026